

FREE LEGO® Show!

Saturday March 2, 2013
2pm—4pm

St Anthony Park
Library
(Lower Level)

What can you do with a few thousand LEGO® bricks and a little bit of creativity?
SEE FOR YOURSELF!

Please join Saint Anthony Park residents Jennifer Heaton and Nathan Stohlmann for a display of their 40+ square foot miniature city! Peter Hoh, who uses LEGO to teach science and engineering, will be on hand to show off some of the sets and models he uses in his classes.
