What can you do with a few thousand LEGO® bricks and a little bit of creativity?
SEE FOR YOURSELF!

Saint Anthony Park residents Jennifer Heaton and Nathan Stohlmann return to the St Anthony Park library for a display of their 50+ square foot miniature city built with over 100,000 LEGO bricks plus other festivities as part of the library's grand re-opening party! LEGO, books, Star Wars, refreshments: What a party!
